Public Schools of Plainfield

NEW JERSEY

Dear Class of 1996:

Congratulations upon achieving this milestone in your educational career. We are proud of your accomplishment and urge you to continue to thirst for knowledge and learning. You represent the best of our times and are the hope and promise for our future.

Your experiences at Plainfield High School provide a foundation to build upon. You are challenged to set rigorous goals to equip you with the knowledge, skills, and disposition necessary to be competitive and productive in a global society. Education at the college or university level, employment that leads to skills development, vocational or technical schooling, or military service are among your options for ongoing preparation. Continued education and training are bridges to the future.

Your career or occupational goals need to be complemented with personal goals that prepare you for adult roles as family members, citizens, and leaders in our community. We need you to contribute to efforts to make our community and society safer, more tolerant of diversity, and supportive of service to others. You are encouraged to grow as leaders, activists, and supporters of efforts to improve the quality of life for all people. You are our hope for a better future.

We are proud of your accomplishments at Plainfield High School. Go forth and achieve great things. Work hard and persevere to make your dreams become a reality. Believe in yourself and your ability to succeed.

Keep the faith.

Larry Leverett
Superintendent of Schools

Public Schools of Plainfield

NEW JERSEY

Dear Seniors:

This letter is written to express a most sincere congratulations to the graduating class of 1996. Your class has demonstrated its leadership qualities through academic, athletic and extra curricular achievements. It is for these reasons that your contributions will be forever recorded in the archives of Plainfield High School history.

As principal of Plainfield High School, I further extend respect and best wishes for a successful post secondary experience and future. The same dedication and energy that was devoted to meeting the high school standards must be doubled, in order to effectively compete in a world class environment, against world class citizens.

It is comforting to know that many of you will not only compete, but will be monumentally successful in life's endeavors.

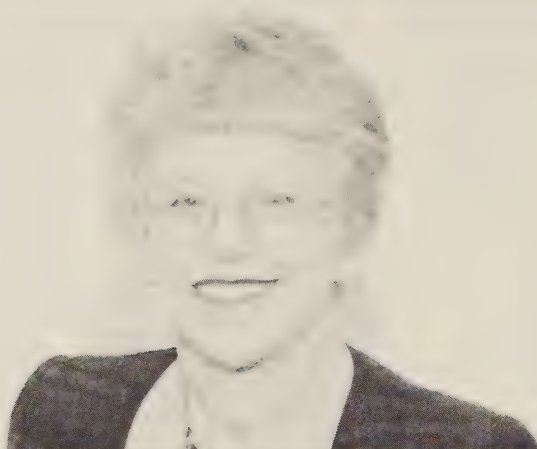

The Plainfield High School Class of 1996 is a shining example of hard work and persistence, and I am honored to confer your eligibility for graduation.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, which appears to read "Leon Edd". The signature is fluid and cursive.

 nobia Fields.

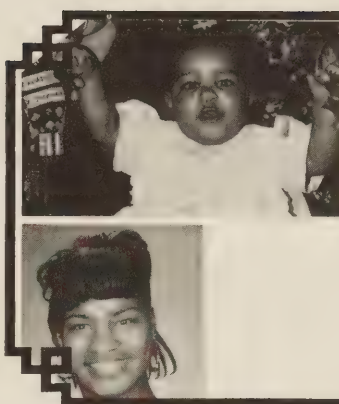

Autographs

Lelia

To our dearest daughter Alice Shani, marvelous, noble black beauty. As you leave this learning experience with honors: our highest hopes, deepest pride and love go with you to Morgan State University. Prepare yourself, your people need you.

In the spirit of Kujichagulia
Nia, your family

Cordina,

Trust in Jehovah with all your heart. He will light your way and protect you from harm.

Love,
Mom

Jason,

God has blessed you in many ways. Keep him in your plans and you will succeed in life.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Alana,

From the first time we looked on you with love, hope, and pride to now and into your future brightly. With love, concerns, and aspirations, thanking God for you always! Congratulations!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Dear Ja-Lia

It is a great honor and privilege to have you as a daughter. I know we don't always see eye to eye but just remember we will always love you. We are truly proud of you. Congratulations.

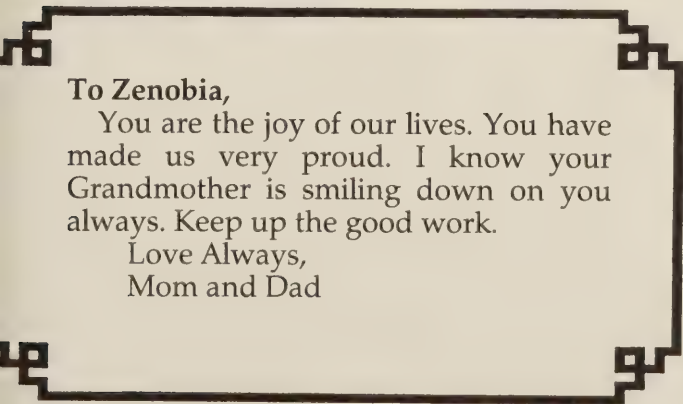

Love,
Mom and Dad

To Chaka Shameeka
Alisha Tucker
A.K.A.
Cha-Cha

Whatever dreams you're dreaming may each one of them come true. Whatever plans you're making may they all work out for you. And may you more happiness, than any words can tell, not only on this special day but all year LONG as WELL!

Mommy and Daddy
Luv You!!
Clayton and Cathy
Tucker, Sr.

To Zenobia,

You are the joy of our lives. You have made us very proud. I know your Grandmother is smiling down on you always. Keep up the good work.

Love Always,
Mom and Dad

Tasha,
You've matured
into a beautiful
young woman whom
I'm very proud of.
Acknowledge the Lord in all the ways
and he will direct thy path.

Love,
Mom

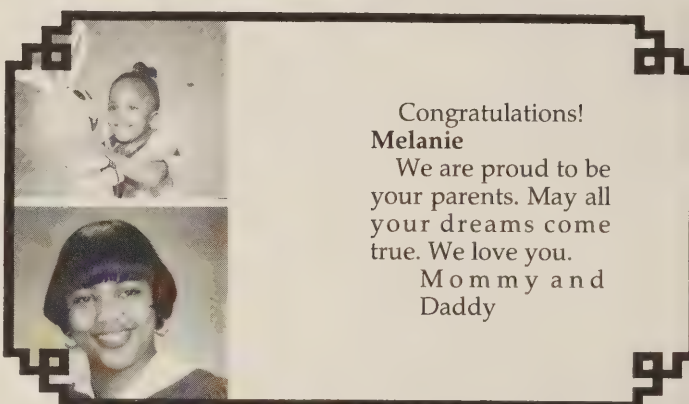

Joel,
Congratulations on your graduation. We wish you much success in the years to come.

Love always,
Mom and Dad

Terrence,
Congratulations
son I'm very proud of you. Hope your future brings you
much success.

Richard,
The stages of your development has been a development
for us as parents.
Through the rough
time love prevailed,
God speed you son.

Love,
Your parents

Yearbook Staff

To those of you who will spend hours perusing this volume looking for grammatical errors, misspelling, and improper grammar, have fun, for you will find loads of them.

For those of you who will spend hours perusing this volume looking for friendly faces, sports, activities and remembered good times; have fun, for our tiny staff has spent months, days, weeks and hours, preparing these pages for your future enjoyment.

If it please you, we are pleased. If it does not please you we are sorry. We've given it our best shot.
